Dear Parents and Caregivers,

Due to a number of schools pulling out of the basketball tournament, Mana College have had to cancel the Building Belief Through Basketball Tournament. They are considering setting a new date for this event next term, when other schools are available. If a new date is set, we will take the same teams and will send you the details for this. We hope this event is rescheduled, as we know our tamariki were excited to participate.

Yours sincerely,

Janelle Reid
