Kia Ora koutou

We have been given the opportunity to take a small number of children to “Tuia - An Instrumental Journey”, a free education concert with Taonga Pūoro and Symphony Orchestra on Friday, September 20th at Te Rauparaha Arena.

Horomona Horo, an expert in traditional Māori music leads the performance and is joined by acclaimed Māori singer songwriter Maisey Rika and the New Zealand Symphony Orchestra.

An Instrumental Journey, a new commission written by Jeremy Mayall, explores the significance of music during the first encounters of Māori and Europeans 250 years ago. Students can learn about the whakapapa of all instruments, hear what they sound like, and how their sound can merge together.

We will be travelling to Te Rauparaha Arena by bus at 10.30am and arrive back at school by lunchtime.

We will need parent helpers to supervise on the day. Please indicate on the form if you are able to help.
